

CVHS 8th graders view Ft. Sumter from classroom

By Lisa Fischer

Fort Sumter Park Ranger and military veteran, Andrew Solage recently appeared as a guest lecturer in Central Valley's 8th grade American history class.

During an online lecture CV students: watched Fort Sumter's flag raising and heard of the island's important geographic location in both the American Revolution and Civil War. Solage also explained the use of canons and their importance.

"An awesome experience for the students to visit a historic location in Charleston, South Carolina," said 8-12 CV Social Studies Instructor Kimbrie Vlach.

