

CVES Celebrates Literacy

By Lisa Fischer

SCOTIA -- To celebrate literacy, Central Valley Public School Media Specialist Angela Boyce, encouraged students in Holly Perrott and Shianne Harders's Kindergarten classes to make cat masks after reading "They All Saw a Cat."

The Central Valley Elementary School Paws for Books book fair occurred Feb. 2-8. It was open after school, beginning Fri. Feb. 2 until 4:15 p.m. Students were encouraged to speak with their teacher, because it is open before school for students and each grade has an assigned day. The book fair is also open during parent-teacher conferences on Feb. 8 from 1-8 p.m..
